Dear Taxpayer:

This is in response to your request dated Jan. 15, 2016, regarding your tax-exempt status.

We issued you a determination letter in July 1980, recognizing you as tax-exempt under Internal Revenue Code (IRC) Section 501(c)(3).

Our records also indicate you're not a private foundation as defined under IRC Section 509(a) because you're described in IRC Sections 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(vi).

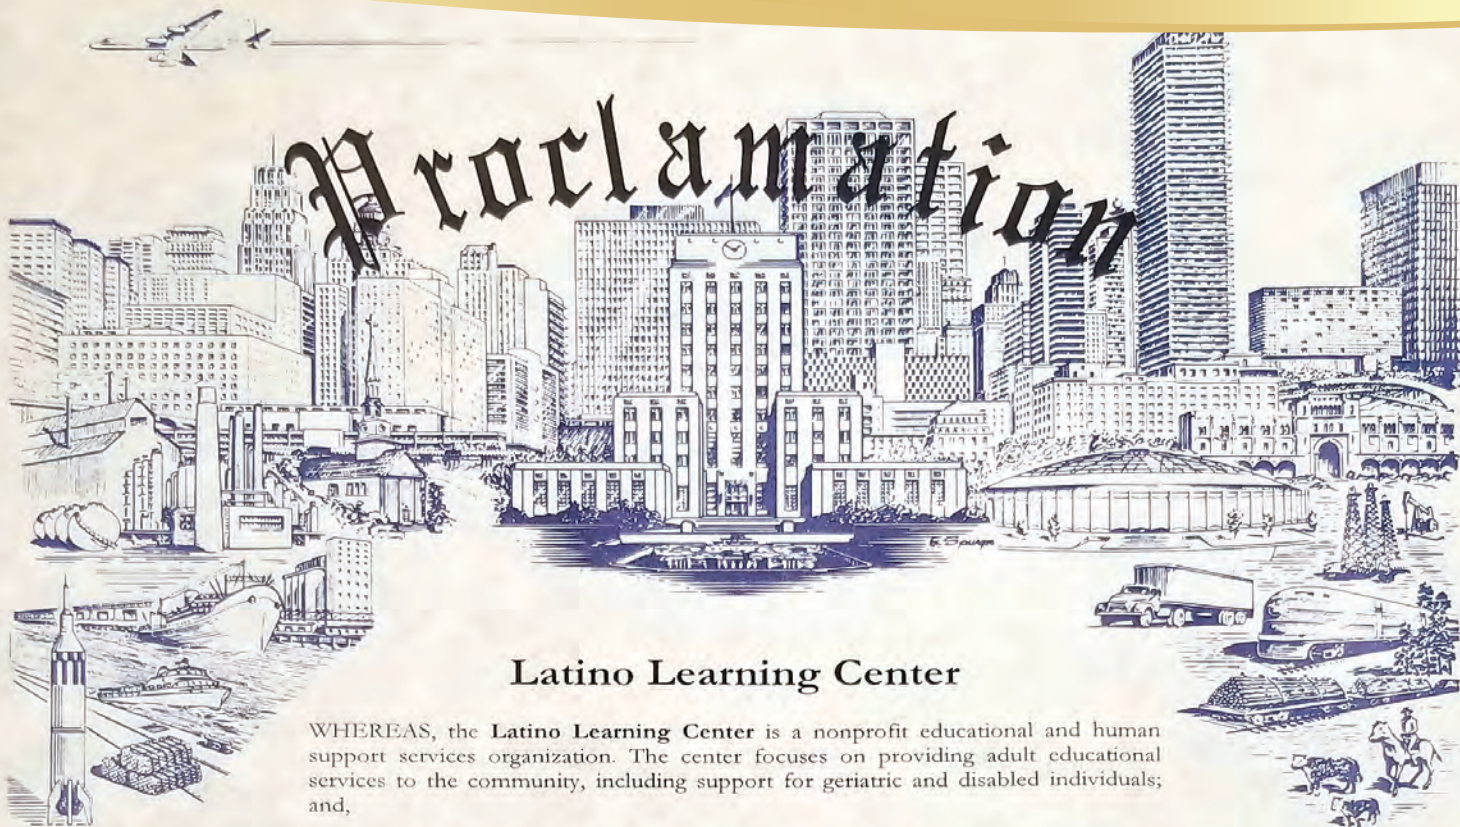

Donors can deduct contributions they make to you as provided in IRC Section 170. You're also qualified to receive tax deductible bequests, legacies, devises, transfers, or gifts under IRC Sections 2055, 2106, and 2522.

In the heading of this letter, we indicated whether you must file an annual information return. If a return is required, you must file Form 990, 990-EZ, 990-N, or 990-PF by the 15th day of the fifth month after the end of your annual accounting period. IRC Section 6033(j) provides that, if you don't file a required annual information return or notice for three consecutive years, your exempt status will be automatically revoked on the filing due date of the third required return or notice.

For tax forms, instructions, and publications, visit www.irs.gov or call 1-800-TAX-FORM (1-800-829-3676).

If you have questions, call 1-877-829-5500 between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m., local time, Monday through Friday (Alaska and Hawaii follow Pacific Time).

Latino Learning Center

WHEREAS, the Latino Learning Center is a nonprofit educational and human support services organization. The center focuses on providing adult educational services to the community, including support for geriatric and disabled individuals; and,

WHEREAS, the Latino Learning Center was founded in October 1979 when it acquired a 21,300 square foot building as a gift. Educational programs were initiated in 1983 and additional building renovations were completed in 1999 with a grant from the City of Houston; and,

WHEREAS, the Latino Learning Center sees an average of 450 adults annually that receive training in their various vocational and educational programs and their state licensed adult day care program serves many elderly and disabled clients to facilitate independent living; and,

On June 27, 2019, the Latino Learning Center will hold its inaugural Barbara Bush Legacy Award, which coincides with the Latino Learning Center's 40th Anniversary. The City of Houston commends the Latino Learning Center on four decades of tireless and outstanding work throughout local communities in providing educational services, adult care service and establishing housing for seniors and disabled persons.

Therefore, I, Sylvester Turner, Mayor of the City of Houston, hereby proclaim June 25, 2019, as

Latino Learning Center Day

in Houston, Texas.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and have caused the Official Seal of the City of Houston to be affixed this 13th day of June, 2019.

The Senate of The State of Texas

SENATE PROCLAMATION NO. 660

WHEREAS, The Senate of the State of Texas is pleased to recognize the Latino Learning Center, Incorporated, which is celebrating its 40th anniversary in conjunction with its Humanitarian Awards Luncheon 2018; and

WHEREAS, The Latino Learning Center is a nonprofit charitable organization in Houston whose mission is to provide educational and human support services to people with low and moderate incomes, with an emphasis on adult education and services for elderly and disabled persons; and

WHEREAS, The center offers a number of vocational programs and classes for such trades as residential air conditioning and refrigeration and residential and commercial electrical work; it also offers English as a Second Language classes that include exercises in business vocabulary and written communication; and

WHEREAS, The center has developed the John Goldberg Apartments for Senior Citizens and the South Houston Vista Apartments in response to the need for affordable housing for the community's elderly population and those who live with disabilities; it also created an adult daycare program that for many years provided activities and a wide range of helpful services for seniors and adults with disabilities; and

WHEREAS, Over the course of the last four decades, the Latino Learning Center has had a profound impact on the lives of countless people, and it is truly fitting that the center receive special recognition as it celebrates this milestone in its history; now, therefore, be it

PROCLAIMED, That the Senate of the State of Texas hereby commend all those associated with the Latino Learning Center on their commitment to improving lives in the greater Houston community and extend to all congratulations on 40 years of exceptional service and best wishes for continued success; and, be it further

PROCLAIMED, That a copy of this Proclamation be prepared for the center as an expression of esteem from the Texas Senate.

Garcia

Member, Texas Senate

I hereby certify that the
